PPE Requirements
In-Person HSR

1) Medical grade masks are now required for all in-person Human Subjects Research. Cloth masks are only appropriate when not conducting in-person Human Subjects Research.

2) Medical grade masks and gloves must be used when research personnel are within 6 feet of research participants.

3) Face shields or goggles are now required to project the eyes. This is required if research staff are within 6 feet of human research participants.